- ❖ Achieve and maintain 100% compliance with information security policies and perform security audits to identify and address vulnerabilities by year 2030.

PERFORMANCE REPORTING

The performance reporting will be conducted annually, providing a detailed assessment of compliance with ethical standards and regulations. The report will evaluate the effectiveness of anti-corruption measures, conflict of interest management, and fraud prevention strategies. It will also review the implementation of whistleblower protections, anti-money laundering controls, and adherence to ethical marketing practices. Additionally, the report will analyze data on anti-competitive practices and information security, ensuring that all ethical conduct policies are effectively enforced and aligned with organizational goals.

REVIEW MECHANISM

The Ethical Conduct Policy will be reviewed annually by the Chief Ethics Officer to ensure ongoing relevance and effectiveness. This review process will involve evaluating adherence to ethical standards, analyzing data on compliance issues, and incorporating feedback from internal audits and stakeholder input. Adjustments to the policy will be made as needed to address emerging challenges and align with best practices.
