01 Preface

Nirav is committed to conducting its food and beverage business with the highest standards of integrity, ethics, transparency, and accountability. We recognize that responsible business conduct is fundamental to protecting consumer trust, supporting sustainable growth, and creating value for employees, customers, suppliers, business partners, shareholders, and the communities in which we operate. This Ethics Policy establishes the principles and standards that guide ethical behaviour and responsible decision-making across our operations and business relationships. Nirav maintains a zero-tolerance approach to bribery, corruption, fraud, conflicts of interest, money laundering, anti-competitive conduct, and other unlawful or unethical practices. The Policy is aligned with the principles of ISO 37001, the United Nations Global Compact, the Business Responsibility and Sustainability Reporting framework, and the Sustainable Development Goals, and is supported by effective governance, awareness, reporting, non-retaliation, accountability, and continual improvement.

02 Policy Declaration

At Nirav, we are committed to conducting our business with the highest standards of ethics, integrity, transparency, and accountability. We recognize that responsible business conduct and ethical decision-making are essential to maintaining trust with our employees, customers, suppliers, business partners, and communities. This Ethics Policy outlines our commitment to compliance with applicable laws and regulations, the prevention of bribery, corruption, fraud, conflicts of interest, and other unethical conduct, and the responsible use of company resources and information. We expect all employees, contractors, and business partners to uphold these principles and to report concerns in good faith, without fear of retaliation.

03 Scope

This Ethical Conduct Policy applies to all operations and business activities carried out by Nirav at its operational location in fdgdbdbdbfd. It applies to all directors, employees, management, contract workers, trainees, consultants, contractors, suppliers, service providers, agents, and other business partners acting on behalf of or representing the Company. It covers all business activities, decisions, and interactions undertaken by or on behalf of Nirav and establishes the framework for ethical behaviour, responsible business conduct, regulatory compliance, and integrity across all operations and business relationships.

07 SDG Alignment

This policy aligns with the following United Nations Sustainable Development Goals:

08 Roles & Responsibilities

Role / Department	Responsibility
Compliance Officer	Oversee ethics program implementation, manage whistleblowing channels, and investigate reported violations.
HR Manager	Enforce code of conduct, coordinate ethics training, and address workforce compliance issues.
IT Manager	Maintain data privacy controls, safeguard confidential information, and ensure cybersecurity compliance.
Internal Audit Team	Conduct periodic compliance audits, assess anti-corruption controls, and report findings to management.
Senior Management	Promote an ethical culture, approve ethics policies, and ensure organizational accountability.
Employees	Uphold ethical standards, report misconduct or conflicts of interest, and complete mandatory training.

09 Monitoring, Reporting & Transparency

Nirav is committed to monitoring and continuously improving the effectiveness of this Ethics Policy and related controls. The Company conducts periodic compliance reviews, internal assessments, management evaluations, and, where appropriate, independent audits to assess adherence to ethical standards, applicable laws, and established procedures across its operations and business relationships. Relevant indicators may include training completion, reported concerns, investigation outcomes, corrective actions, and identified ethics-related risks.

Employees and relevant stakeholders are encouraged to report suspected misconduct, conflicts of interest, fraud, corruption, violations of this Policy, or other unethical conduct through the designated reporting channels. Reports will be handled promptly, confidentially, and impartially, subject to applicable legal requirements. Nirav prohibits retaliation against any person who raises a concern or participates in an investigation in good faith. Findings from monitoring activities, investigations, stakeholder feedback, and regulatory developments will be used to strengthen controls, update training and procedures, and support continual improvement. Material ethics risks, significant incidents, and progress against relevant objectives will be communicated to appropriate management and, where suitable, disclosed transparently to stakeholders.

10 Review Mechanism & Continuous Improvement

This Ethics Policy will be reviewed annually by the Sustainability Officer to assess its continued relevance, effectiveness, and alignment with applicable legal requirements and recognized ethical standards. An interim review will be initiated following significant regulatory changes, ethical incidents, substantiated grievances, audit findings, or material changes to Nirav’s operations or stakeholder expectations. The Sustainability Officer will evaluate compliance data, audit results, incident records, and feedback from employees and relevant stakeholders, and will recommend improvements for management approval. Approved revisions and resulting actions will be communicated to employees and relevant stakeholders, with implementation monitored as part of Nirav’s continuous improvement process.
