Sri All India Exports
Karur, India
The Magic of Indian Weaves

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

Effective from : 01/01/2024

Revision Number : 01

#23, Velammal Layout, Sengunthapuram, Karur-639002, India.

INDEX

1. APPLICABILITY ..... 4
2. INTERPRETATION ..... 4
3. CLASSIFICATION OF WORKMAN ..... 6
4. RECRUITMENT ..... 7
5. AGE VERIFICATION & UNDERAGE WORKER PREVENTION ..... 8
6. MEDICAL EXAMINATION ..... 9
7. SAFETY REGULATIONS ..... 9
8. RESIDENTIAL ADDRESS OF WORKMAN ..... 10
9. ISSUE OF DEPARTMENT TICKETS TO WORKMAN ..... 10
10. ENTRY INTO AND DEPARTURE FROM ESTABLISHMENT OF WORKMEN ..... 11
11. LIABILITY FOR SEARCH ..... 12
12. SHIFT WORKING ..... 13
13. ATTENDANCE AND LATE COMING ..... 14
14. PROCEDURE FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE TO WORKMEN ..... 15
15. NOTICE FOR ABSENCE FROM DUTY AND PENALTY FOR ABSENCE WITHOUT GIVING NOTICE ..... 18
16. GENDER INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY ..... 18
17. PROMOTION ..... 19
18. EXTRA PAY FOR PERFORMANCE ..... 20
19. SAFEGUARDING OF YOUNG WORKERS ..... 21
20. HEALTH CHECK UP ..... 22

21. AGE OF SUPERANNUATION ..... 22
22. VOLUNTARY RETIREMENT ..... 22
23. TAKING UP EMPLOYMENT OUTSIDE ..... 23
24. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OF WORKMEN..... 23
25. TEMPORARY CLOSURE OF DEPARTMENTS AND LAY-OFF OF WORKMEN ..... 25
26. STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS..... 26
27. RETRENCHEMENT, CLOSURE AND TRANSFER ..... 27
28. TRANSFER ..... 27
29. OVER TIME ..... 27
30. ACTS AND OMMISSIONS CONSTITUTING MISCONDUTCT..... 28
31. WORKPLACE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES ..... 38
32. REMEDIATION PROCEDURES ..... 40
33. WHISTLEBLOWER PROCEDURE ..... 41
34. PUNISHMENT FOR MISCONDUCT..... 43
35. PROCEDURE FOR PUNISHMENT..... 44
36. SPECIAL PROCEDURES IN CERTAIN CASES..... 48
37. IMPOSITION OF FINES ..... 48
38. PAYMENT OF WAGES..... 48
39. ACCOMODATION ..... 49
40. DATA SECURITY AND MANAGEMENT PROCEDURES ..... 49
41. NOTICE..... 50

SRI ALL INDIA EXPORTS

NO: 23, VELAMMAL LAYOUT, SENGUNTHAPURAM PO,
KARUR – 639 002.

Employee Handbook

1. APPLICABILITY

These Employee Handbook shall apply to all existing and future workman of M/s. SRI ALL INDIA EXPORTS, NO: 23, VELAMMAL LAYOUT, SENGUNTHAPURAM PO, KARUR – 639 002.

2. INTERPRETATION

In these orders, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or Context:

a) "EMPLOYER" means the management of "SRI ALL INDIA EXPORTS" for the workers directly employed by the establishment and the Contractors for the workmen employed by the contractors concerned.

b) "FIRM" means M/s. SRI ALL INDIA EXPORTS, NO: 23, VELAMMAL LAYOUT, SENGUNTHAPURAM PO, KARUR – 639002.

c) "INDUSTRIAL ESTABLISHMENT OR ESTABLISHMENT" means M/s. SRI ALL INDIA EXPORTS, NO: 23, VELAMMAL LAYOUT, SENGUNTHAPURAM PO, KARUR – 639 002.which exist at present and other establishment which are to be established anywhere in future.

d) "MANAGEMENT" means partners of the firm, sister concerns, General Manager, Managers of the individual Godowns, showrooms and shops or their Branches etc, and other person as may be authorized.

e) "MEDICAL CERTIFICATE" means a certificate issued by ESI Medical Officer or a Medical practitioner authorized and by the Management.

f) "PREMISES" means the premises where the establishment situated and includes any property and premises under the control of the Establishment and includes the establishment vehicles also.

g) "REGISTERED MEDICAL PRACTITONER" means qualified Allopathic practitioner registered in accordance with the law and approved by the Management.

h) "SUPERVISOR" means the Employee of the Establishment who by the reason of designation and official position exercises control, supervision over the workman in the establishment in which is employed.

i) "WORKMAN" means any person male or female and includes a WORKMAN as defined in the industrial Employment (Employee Handbook) Act 1946.

j) The singular shall include the plural, the masculine, and the feminine where applicable.

k) "HABITUAL" means repetition of an act or conduct more than once.

l) Should there be any discrepancy between the English and Tamil versions of these orders, the English version shall prevail.

3. CLASSIFICATION OF WORKMAN

Workman shall be classified as:

a) Permanent
b) Probationer
c) Temporary
d) Apprentice
e) Casual

a) A "Permanent" workman is one who is employed on a permanent basis and includes any person who has satisfactorily completed the prescribed period of probation in the same or higher or equivalent category in the establishment.

b) A "Probationer" is one who is provisionally employed to fill a permanent vacancy and the period of probation shall be 24 months. A probationer will continue to be a probationer until he is confirmed in writing as a permanent workman. Provided, in particular case, the management may extend the period of probation of any workman up to further period equivalent to 12 months, if the management is not satisfied with the work and / or conduct of any workman during the period of probation, if a permanent workman is employed as a probationer period of 24 months be reverted to his old permanent post. The service of the probationer can be terminated if he is found not suitable for the job or for unsatisfactory work or otherwise.

c) A "Temporary" workman is one who has been engaged for work, which is of essentially temporary in nature likely to be finished within a specified period.

d) An "Apprentice" is one who is engaged essentially in learning any skilled work provided that the period of such learning shall not exceed 12 months for those with prescribed technical qualification and 18 months for others, Establishment will not be taken into account for calculating the above-mentioned period of 18 months.

e) A "Casual" workman is one who is employed for the unexpected or unforeseen work, which is not likely to last continuously and who shall not have any lien over his employment.

4. RECRUITMENT

The company is committed to an open, transparent, and merit-based recruitment process that prevents discriminatory hiring practices and ensures equal opportunities for all workmen. This applies to both internal and external candidates entering the company's selection process. The recruitment process focuses on qualifications, skills, and experience rather than personal attributes or background. The company regularly reviews recruitment practices to ensure compliance with these standards and to address any potential biases. This approach supports a fair and inclusive recruitment system that selects the most qualified individuals while upholding the principles of equality and fairness.

5. AGE VERIFICATION & UNDERAGE WORKER PREVENTION

a) The age is recorded by the establishment as given by the workman in the application or the age as per the Transfer Certificate obtained from the Education Institution or the age as per the extract of the register of Births attested by any officer maintaining it under any statute and presented to the management at the time of joining shall be the age of the workman. Once the age of the workman has been recorded, the workman shall have no right to reopen the question through any forum regarding the correctness of his date of birth either for the purpose of superannuating or for any other purpose. Any amendment or modification could be done by the concerned workman within one year of confirmation of him as a permanent workman of the Management. Any applicant/workman who is unable to produce documentary evidence for his age shall be sent to the Medical Officer arranged by the establishment for the assessment of his/her age. This age shall be recorded and used for the official purpose in connection with his/her employment in the establishment.

b) To prevent the hiring of underage workers, the establishment ensures that all candidates provide valid age verification documents before employment. The establishment follows strict hiring practices, including mandatory age verification procedures and regular audits to ensure compliance with legal requirements regarding the minimum working age. Any discrepancies or issues identified during these processes are addressed promptly to uphold labor laws and regulations

6. MEDICAL EXAMINATION

a) All the workman and apprentices shall undergo initial medical examination at the time of recruitment and also shall be subjected to periodical and / or at any time medical, intelligence aptitude and other physical tests as required by the Management in order to determine their suitability for the work. Refusal to do so will entail him for disciplinary action. The management at their costs will make arrangement for the above tests.

b) If any workman is found by the medical officer appointed by the establishment for this purpose, to be physically and / or mentally unfit for the work for which he is engaged or found to be suffering from any contagious or communicable disease, is liable to be discharged from service in accordance with law.

c) While carrying out medical test when engaging females, they will not be advised / sent for pregnancy test.

7. SAFETY REGULATIONS

a) Workmen are required to observe strictly the safety regulations of the establishment. Any workman who is found to be disregarding these regulations or taking unnecessary risks, which might involve danger to himself or to others or damage to shop, buildings etc will be liable for dismissal.

b) The establishment may from time to time for observance by the workman formulate such rules and regulations and issue notices, as it may consider necessary for running the establishment in accordance with the provision of these Employee Handbook. Such rules, regulations may be applied to the whole or to any sections of department or departments of the establishment in furtherance of the Employee Handbook.

8. RESIDENTIAL ADDRESS OF WORKMAN

A workman shall notify the employer immediately on employment, the details of his residential address and any change of address thereafter. It shall be the responsibility of the workman not only to communicate the change in address but also obtain acknowledgement as to the change having been effected in the establishment records. In case the workman has not communicated to his employer the change in his residential address, his last address made available shall be treated as his residential address for sending any communication. Communication sent to such last given address shall be deemed to be the proper residential address for service of notice.

9. ISSUE OF DEPARTMENT TICKETS TO WORKMAN

a) Every workman shall be provided with a ticket showing his number, classification of work and on attendance each day, shall deliver the ticket at the place provided when entering the establishment and take it back when leaving the establishment at the close of the day, whenever the system of card punching or any card attendance system of any other similar system is introduced, ticket system shall not be applicable. In that case, workman shall punch his ticket or follow any card Attendances system as instructed by the management when they enter the establishment for work, when they go out for interval and also when they go out at the end of the shift.

b) Workman shall wear / carry identity card and name badge while on duty as specified by the management when they are provided by the management. Identity card and name badge shall initially be provided free of cost and any loss shall immediately be reported to the management. New identity card and name badge will be provided at actual cost. Identity card and name badge shall be the property of the establishment and shall be surrendered at the time of leaving the establishment service.

c) Every clerical and supervisory workman shall sign in the attendance register kept in the office while entering the establishment for duty and also while leaving it, duly marking the time.

OR

Every workman including clerical and supervisory shall punch his card or mark his attendance as may be required while entering the establishment for duty and also while leaving it, if automatic or computerized system of attendance is introduced in the establishment.

10. ENTRY INTO AND DEPARTURE FROM ESTABLISHMENT OF WORKMEN

The workmen shall not enter or leave the premises of the establishment except by the gate provided for the purpose. A workman has no right to enter the establishment without permission from his superiors, when he is not in duty. A workman who has been laid off, suspended or dismissed shall leave the establishment immediately. A workman carrying Tiffin box, bag or other respectable shall keep them open as he enters or passes out of the gate. The management has the right to remove from those searched any article as the Management may consider that it would endanger the personnel or property of the establishment or fellow workman or may be unsuitable for being taken into the premises of the establishment.

No workman shall take any papers, books, drawings, photographs, instruments, apparatus, documents or any other property of the establishment out of the establishment premises except with the written permission of the Management not shall he be in any way pass or cause to be passed or disclosed or cause to be disclosed any information or matter concerning the trade secrets and confidential documents of the establishment to any person, company or corporation without the written permission of the management.

All the workmen shall wear the prescribed uniform at the time of entering the department and also while on duty if the establishment provides any uniform. Such of those workmen not wearing the prescribed uniform shall not be allowed inside the department of the establishment. Further if any workmen after entering the department are found not wearing the uniform shall tender him liable for disciplinary action.

11. LIABILITY FOR SEARCH

All male workmen shall be searched at the time of entering or leaving the establishment and at any time whilst at duty by the security staff or other person authorized for the purpose. A female searcher shall search all female workmen. It shall also be opened to the establishment Manager to employ other methods of searching such as metal detective, x-raying etc, if the searcher suspects that any worker is in wrongful possession of the property belonging establishment to or any other material or object prohibited by law, such worker shall be detained for taking further proceedings.

Proper care and maintenance of tools and other equipments entrusted to the workmen for work will be the responsibility of individual workman and he must produce them for inspection and check whenever necessary. Any theft of the same will result in disciplinary action being taken against the workman. If a tool or equipment is lost and cannot be traced, the value of such tool or equipment will be recovered from the wages of the concerned workman or the group of workmen collectively if the entrustment is to a group of workmen.

12. SHIFT WORKING

a) Shift working shall be regulated in accordance with the provisions of the law applicable establishment. One or more that one shift may be worked in a department or departments or any section of the department and any shift may be discontinued at the discretion of the management. If more than one shift is worked, the workman shall be liable to be transferred from one shift to another.

b) All the departments in the establishment will work all the 24 hours, 3 shifts a day and 7 days in a week or as required by the management and subject to the provisions of the Tamil Nadu Factories Act, 1948.

c) The company provides shift working arrangements in case of emergencies to workmen, along with flexible options to support their needs in balancing home and work lives. These options may include part-time work, telecommuting, flexi-time, job-shares, or variable work schedules

d) Every workman is required to keep clean and neat his work area of the establishment and the machine which he operates at the end of his working hours before leaving his place of work.

e) Workman shall abide any change without notice in their shifts, intervals, weekly holiday and any other matter specified in the fourth schedule of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 as instructed by the management occasion arises subject to the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act.

f) When the reliever / workman of the next shift does not come to continue the work, the existing shift workmen will not be insisted to continue the next shift.

13. ATTENDANCE AND LATE COMING

a) Every workman shall be present at the specified work spot at the time notified and shall not leave the work spot at the time fixed and notified. Any workman not so present at the work spot at the time fixed and notified will be considered late. The late comers will be allowed for a grace time as fixed by the management, beyond which the workman shall have to apply for permission / leave / on – duty as the case may be as applicable in the prescribed formats allowed in the establishment.

b) Workmen who leave their work spot for interval as well as at the end of the shift before the time fixed and notified shall be marked absent for the respective half of the shift and no wage shall be paid to them for such period.

c) Any Workman who, after punching his card or presenting his ticket or signing the register, is found absent from his work or place or places or work or leaves the premises of the establishment during working hours. Any workman punches other workman's card will be subject to disciplinary action.

14. PROCEDURE FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE TO WORKMEN

a) Any leave / holiday with wage will be governed by the Tamil Nadu Factories Act, 1948 and other holidays in accordance with law applicable to the establishment. Grant of Holiday / Leave with wages shall depend on the exigencies of the establishment and shall be at the discretion of the employer. All other leave, holidays and absenteeism shall be on loss of pay.

b) A Workman who desires to obtain Holiday / Leave of absence except in emergencies shall apply before 48 hours from the commencement of the leave in the prescribed manner to the manager or any other persons appointed for the purpose by the employer and shall not avail the same unless it is sanctioned. If the leave is refused the same shall be communicated to the Workman before the commencement of the leave. If the workman after proceeding on leave desired an extension thereof, he shall make an application sufficiently in advance for the purpose to the authority granting leave in writing and shall avail the leave only after attaining action form the prescribed authority. Grant of leave shall depend on the exigencies of the work and shall be at the discretion of the management.

c) When ESI scheme is introduced if any Workman desires to obtain leave on medical ground, he shall submit ESI certificate in time otherwise the same shall be rejected and the Workman shall also be liable for disciplinary action.

d) The management is not bound to accept the certificates given by ESI in case doubting the bonafide of the said certificate. The management shall send him to establishment's Doctor for examinations and on his granting certificate, the Workman shall be granted leave.

e) Workmen who have been recommended abstention from work on the ground of such sickness by the ESI authorities should apply immediately in writing in the forms provided for the purposed for grant of ESI authorities. Where immediate application is not made, the workman will be deemed to be absent and ESI leave will be granted only from the date of receipt of his application with relative certificate.

f) Workman who is on ESI leave as above shall produce final ESI certificate on the date he resumes his work. The management may at their discretion refuse to permit a workman to resume work without a final ESI medical certificate. No workmen will be granted leave for more than 20 days on loss of pay per year or more than 4 days in the month.

g) The female employees are eligible for maternity leave as per the Maternity Act. The Maternity leave benefit can be availed under Maternity Act or ESI Act, as the case may be.

h) I) No communication can be taken cognizance of or acted upon unless the communication bears the address to which the reply can be sent II) A workman who is remaining absent beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended and sanctioned shall be considered as having voluntarily abandoned his employment and shall be deemed to have left the services without notice thereby terminating his contract of service automatically and voluntarily unless he (i) returns within eight (8) days of the commencements of such absence and (ii) has given an explanation in writing to the satisfaction of his superiors and is accepted. III) The management shall have right to recall the workman before the expiry of his leave.

i) The company supports workmen's work-life balance through its leave initiatives, offering Extended Care Leave and Emergency Family Care Leave. Workmen are entitled to 10 days of paid care leave annually, in addition to statutory leave, for caring for children, elderly parents, or other family members in need. Additionally, workmen can avail of up to 5 days of paid emergency family care leave annually to address unforeseen family emergencies.

15. NOTICE FOR ABSENCE FROM DUTY AND PENALTY FOR ABSENCE WITHOUT GIVING NOTICE

a) If five or more workmen acting in concert without giving not less than 14 days' notice to the employer, absent themselves from work or being present at the work spot refuse to work in the manner directed by the management, each one of them shall be liable to pay to the employer in lieu of such notice an amount equal to his wages for 8 days and similar amount for every day of delay in resuming work, without prejudice to the employer taking disciplinary actions as contemplated in the Employee Handbook or acts framed by the state and central Governments in this regard. Such amount shall be recovered through deductions from wages due.

b) Based on!! "NO WORK NO WAGES" principle, workmen are not entitled to any wages or compensation during the period of strike/stoppage of work/absence of Workmen.

16. GENDER INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY

The company is committed to promoting gender inclusion and supporting a diverse workplace through various programs and actions. Specific initiatives include networking groups, mentoring programs, and leadership training designed to support and advance The company is committed to promoting gender inclusion and supporting a diverse workplace through various programs and actions. Specific initiatives include leadership development workshops, sponsorship programs, and career advancement training designed to support and advance gender diversity. For example, the company runs a Women in Leadership Program that pairs female workmen with senior mentors to help them advance into leadership roles.

To foster an inclusive environment for minorities and vulnerable groups, the company establishes programs and actions such as diversity-focused professional development, inclusion workshops, and support networks. An example is the Diversity Mentorship Initiative, which pairs workmen from under-represented groups with experienced mentors to provide guidance and career development support.

17. PROMOTION

Promotion from one category or grade to another will be based on Promotion from one category or grade to another will be based on qualification, efficiency, trustworthiness, good conduct, regularity in attendance, and overall record. Seniority alone does not guarantee promotion, and temporary assignments to higher positions do not constitute a promotion.

The company supports internal growth by providing various chances for workmen to advance and develop within the organization. Career Advancement involves promotions or transfers to higher job levels, helping workmen advance their careers. Cross-Departmental Transfers allow workmen to switch functions or departments while staying at the same job level, gaining new experiences across different areas. Location-Based Opportunities offer chances to work at different sites within the company, allowing workmen to gain diverse geographical experience. Skill-Based Movement encourages workmen to take on different roles or functions by using their transferable skills, also known as "cross-skilling."

The company also provides job rotation, internal transfers, and career development workshops to support these internal growth initiatives. All internal job openings are advertised to ensure fairness, and regular skills assessments and career counseling help workmen find and pursue new roles within the company.

The company holds annual meeting between managers and workmen to discuss career development. These discussions cover career paths, strengths, weaknesses, and growth opportunities. For instance, a workman aiming for a management role might discuss needed skills and training with their manager, while another seeking cross-departmental experience would explore potential roles in different departments. These sessions help workmen get tailored advice and support for advancing their careers within the company.

18. Extra Pay for Performance

a) In addition to the base salary, the company provides Extra Pay for Performance to workmen that is linked to the overall performance of the company. This remuneration is designed to reward workmen for their contributions to the company's success and to incentivize continued excellence in their roles.

b) The extra pay is determined based on specific criteria, including company profitability, achievement of business targets, and other key performance indicators as outlined in the company's performance management system.

19. Safeguarding of Young Workers

a) The company shall take specific actions to safeguard any young worker employed. Such actions shall include:

(i) Communicating clearly the working hours and contractual obligations to young workers, ensuring they are fully informed of their responsibilities and rights.

(ii) Providing a comprehensive onboarding and orientation program tailored to young workers, introducing them to the workplace, their roles, and the company's policies in a manner that is easily understandable.

(iii) Conducting regular health and safety checks specifically aimed at young workers, with the objective of identifying any risks and addressing concerns related to their well-being. These checks shall include direct communication with young workers to monitor their health and safety on a continuous basis.

(iv) Implementing a system to identify hazards and assess risks in the workplace, ensuring a safe working environment for young workers. This system shall be reviewed periodically to adapt to any changes in the working conditions or regulations.

b) The company is committed to creating a secure and supportive environment for young workers, adhering to all legal requirements and promoting the welfare of all employees.

20. Health Check Up

a) The company has an agreement with an external healthcare provider to offer comprehensive health care plans for workmen and their dependents. This plan includes medical care through insurance, reimbursement, or other means, covering both work-related and non-work-related injuries, accidents, or illnesses as soon as the workman chooses to avail of medical care.

b) The health care plan is designed to offer flexibility and accessibility, ensuring that all workmen and their families receive the necessary medical attention when needed, without financial burden.

21. AGE OF SUPERANNUATION

Every workman shall retire on attaining the age of 58 (Fifty-Eight) years which shall be the age superannuating.

22. VOLUNTARY RETIREMENT

Any Workman desired of leaving the services shall give one month's notice or pay one-month wages in lieu of notice to the employer. If a person employed without sanction of leave fails to report for duty and remained absent for the period of 3 months consecutively and from whom there was no written communication to management, it shall be deemed that he is mot interested in the employment and will be deemed to have retired himself voluntarily.

23. TAKING UP EMPLOYMENT OUTSIDE

A workman shall not any time work against the interests of the establishment and shall not take up any other employment while he is in establishment service.

24. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OF WORKMEN

c) Subject to the provisions of the law applicable to the establishment, the employment of any permanent workmen may be terminated for any reasonable cause by one month notice or one-month pay in lieu such notice.

The reasons for the termination of service shall be recorded in writing shall be communicated to the workman at the time of termination. Resignation by the workman shall not take effect unless it is accepted by the management.

d) A permanent workman desirous of leaving the services of the establishment shall give notice of one month to the management of his intention to do so. It shall be at the discretion of the management to waive off the notice period. Any workman leaving the service without notice is bound to pay the amount of wages for the period of notices so required which can be withheld from his wages or any other amount due to him.

e) The employment of any permanent workman may also be terminated for causes as listed below by after following legal proceedings. This list is however not exhaustive.

- ✓ Insanity, Physical infirmity, contagious or infectious disease, senility continued ill-health, medical unfitness for employment as declared by the establishment Doctor.
- ✓ Workman declared as an insolvent
- ✓ Conviction by a criminal court.
- ✓ Engaging in any avocation outside the establishment without the written permission of the management or found to have been working elsewhere during the period of leave.
- ✓ Loss of confidence

f) An order relating to discharge or termination of services shall be in writing shall be in writing and shall be signed by the manager or any other officer duly authorized to do so and a copy thereof shall be supplied to the workman concerned.

g) Leave of absence by a workman on ground of sickness including ESI leave for an aggregate period of 120 days or more in a year shall render the workman liable to be declared as unfit for further service in the establishment and consequently be discharged form service, without any enquiry or notice or compensation whatsoever.

h) Every workman at the time of termination of his employment or resignation must return all books, documents tools other equipments and all other articles whatsoever belonging to the establishment in his possession and give charge of the same to his superiors. In case a workman fails to return the establishments property, the value of the same together with any other dues of the establishment may be deducted from the amount payable to him by the establishment.

i) The workman other than permanent including probationer, casual, temporary, apprentice / trainee may be discharged from service of the establishment without notice or compensation without assigning any reason.

j) Once the resignation is accepted by the management, the workman has no claim for re employment.

k) Where the employment of any person is terminated by the management, the wage earned by him shall be paid before the expiry of the second working day from the day on which his employment was terminated.

25. TEMPORARY CLOSURE OF DEPARTMENTS AND LAY-OFF OF WORKMEN

a) Workmen are liable to the laid off for the reasons enumerated in section 2 KKK of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act of XIV of 1947). Payment of lay off compensation shall be governed by the provision of the industrial disputes Act 1947 or as per any settlement between the parties.

b) The employment may at any time or times in the vent of fire, catastrophe, breakdown of machinery, stoppage of power supply, epidemic, civil commotion, shortage of raw material, accumulation of stock of finished goods, maintenance of work, economic or financial reasons or inability to provide work for causes beyond the control of the Management of for any reason whatsoever otherwise than by way of punishment, stop working any machine or close down any department of departments of the establishment wholly or partially for any period of periods. The management will be the sole judge for the sufficiency of the cause.

c) In case the lay off period exceeds 45 days in a year, the workmen will not be paid any lay off compensation.

d) No workman employed in the maintenance of electric power supply, fire and security departments, maintenance of water supply mechanical and transport department, sanitation and conservancy department and watch and ward, timekeeper cashier, driver, typist, sweeper, shall go on the strike or stop work.

26. STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

Except in accordance with the law applicable to the establishment no workmen shall go on the striker, go slow mass absenteeism by individually or collectively in a concretive manner shall also be deemed as a strike. The management shall have the right to declare the lockout subject to the provision of the Industrial Disputes Act.

In the event of strike or go slow by workmen affecting either wholly or partially one or more department of the establishment, the management may stop working or close down either wholly or partially such department or departments of the establishment and also any other department or departments affected by such go slow or stoppage or closing down for any period or periods without wages or compensation to workmen. The fact of such stoppage or closure shall also be notified by general notice in the office. The general notice prior to the assumption of the work shall also notify the workmen concerned when work will be resumed. By reasons of integrated operation of the establishment, any strike or go slow by any section of the workmen will be deemed to affect by departments and all the workmen, if workmen are to be laid off in a particular department in consequence of strike or go slow in any other department such workmen shall not be entitled for any lay off compensation.

27. RETRENCHEMENT, CLOSURE AND TRANSFER

Subject to the provision of the Act applicable to the establishment, the management shall have the right to retrench workmen and the management shall also have the right to close down or transfer the establishment.

28. TRANSFER

Every workman is liable to be transferred either permanently or temporarily at any time to any place in any manner form one unit, job, branch, section, division, department, shift, trade to another whether such unit, job, branch, section, department or trade etc is new or old or acquired. Such transfer could also be to any the allied or sister or associated concern of the establishment. The transfer could also be to administrative office or any other area of operation. Any transfer shall be without detrimental to his wages earned and terms conditions of his service.

29. OVER TIME

The company may require workman to work extra hours beyond their regular work schedule. However, this is entirely optional, and workman cannot be forced to work overtime. If a workman chooses to work overtime, they will be paid at a higher rate than their regular pay. It's important to note that any overtime work must follow the rules set by the government.

The company will keep accurate records of all overtime hours worked by workman. Once the overtime period ends, workman will be promptly paid the extra money they earned.

30. ACTS AND OMMISSIONS CONSTITUTING MISCONDUTCT

With out being exhaustive and without prejudice to the generality, misconduct shall interlaid include the following acts and omissions.

1) Willful insubordination or disobedience whether alone or combination with another or others of any lawful and reasonable order of a superior.
2) Riotous disorderly of obscene behavior during working hours in the premises of the establishment or any act subversive of discipline.
3) Preaching or inciting violence inside or outside establishment in connection with the employment.
4) Disobedience, using impertinent language, gestures or insinuation in expression misbehavior or quarrelling with a superior in rank or insinuation at enquiry held by the employer.
5) Theft, fraud or misappropriation or cheating or dishonesty connection with the employer’s business of property or attempt to remove the employer’s or other workman’s property without permissions.
6) Adoption go slow or slowing down in performance of the work or abetment or instigation thereof or deliberate delaying of delivery of documents or carrying out order.

7) Threatening, abusing, intimidating or insulting or assaulting and employee / officer / director or any other personnel of the premises of the establishment, if such threat, abuse, intimidation or assault is in connection with employment in the establishment.
8) Trespass, forcible occupation, squatting or remaining anywhere in the premises of the establishment of gheroing with a view to intimidate, coerce or threaten the employer or workmen.
9) Striking of work of instigating other to strike work with out giving 14 days of notice in breach of Employee Handbook or in contravention of provision of the industrial Disputers Act, 1947, or any other enactment or rule for the time being in force.
10) Drunkenness within the premises of the establishment or being in a state of intoxication or drug addiction inside the premises of the establishment or bringing alcoholic liquor or any narcotic into the establishment.
11) Gambling or playing cards within the premises of the establishment.
12) Unauthorized possession of any lethal weapon, explosives, and ignitable for inflammable materials within the premises of the establishment.
13) Conviction by any court of law for any criminal offences of for any sort.
14) Taking or giving bribes or any illegal gratification whatsoever in cash or in kind in connection with the employer's business or his interests.
15) Collection or contribution to or canvassing any collection of money within the premises of the establishment for the purposes not sanctioned in writing by the employer.
16) Engaging in trade or lending money or any other private business within the premises of the establishment.
17) Bringing, distributing, reading or exhibiting inside the premises of the establishment hand bills, posters, pamphlets, handouts of flags etc., or canvassing of any type for any purpose without the previous sanction of the employer in writing.

18) Habitual absence without leaves or absence without leave for more than 10 consecutive days.
19) Habitual late attendance.
20) Habitual absence from place of work.
21) Loitering, idling or wasting time or chatting or unnecessary discussing with co-workman during working hours either in the work spot or lavatory or other places or remaining in the establishment's premises beyond the authorized hours of work without previous written permission of the employer.
22) Intimidation, coercing or threatening any doctor at an ESI hospital or Dispensary or any medical officer of the establishment to issue sickness certificate when the worker is not sick and for any reason.
23) Obtaining leave on false grounds.
24) Sleeping whilst on duty and / or sleeping in places other than the rest shed of the establishment.
25) Negligence or neglect of work.
26) Willful damage or damage due to negligence or carelessness to work-in-process or to any other property of the employer or properties held in trust on behalf of the employer.
27) Interfering with machines or process not connected with the work allocated and / or asked to do by the member of the supervisory staff or entering into other department / sections otherwise than in course of these normal duties.
28) Unauthorized taking over of doing work of another workman.
29) Habitual breach of any rules or instructions of the management of the maintenance and running of any department or the maintenance of the cleanliness of any portion of the premises of the establishment or failure to maintain cleanliness of the machinery on which the workman works and its immediate surroundings.

30) Disclosing to any person trade information in regard to the working or processes in the establishment without the prior permission of the employer.
31) Holding, organizing attending or any way or talking part in any meeting within the premise of the establishment without the written permission of the employer or shouting slogans or staging demonstrations or inciting or indulging others or making speeches or unwarranted noises within the premises of the establishment.
32) Smoking inside the premises of the establishment or bringing into premises of the establishment smoking materials like beedi, cigarette, matchbox and other combustible materials. Workman has to adhere to Smoking Policy, if any in force.
33) Failure to observe duly notified safety instructions or willful interference with or disregard to any safety guard or any other safety devices or equipment installed within the establishment for the purposes of securing safety of the workmen or premises of property of the establishment.
34) Defacing the walls of the establishment's buildings or latrines.
35) Violating sanitary rules or committing nuisance in the premises of the establishment.
36) Failure to appear for medical examination when required to do so.
37) Failure to refusal to wear apron/bag/uniform or shoe any protective equipment given by the employer, while on duty.

38) Knowingly and wrongfully interfering with the record of attendance or means or recording attendance or tampering with any records or registers of the establishment.
39) Picking up or delivery of ticket, card or token through another workmen or person.
40) Punching the time card of any other workman.
41) Refusing to come to office of the establishment when called for, or refusal to receive any orders of superiors or any charge sheet or order, communicated in writing.
42) Unauthorized entering or leaving or attempting to enter or leave the premises of the establishment except by the gates provided for the purpose.
43) Leaving the premises of the establishment without permission.
44) Deliberately making false, vicious or malicious statements in public or otherwise or writing anonymous letters or petitions making allegations against the employer or the establishment or any officer or workman of the establishment.
45) Willful falsification, defacement or destruction of any record or document of the establishment whether maintained by himself or other workmen and giving information for preparing any record or committing any error in the maintenance of records.
46) Tendering false evidence in any enquiry, trial or proceeding to which the employer or establishment is a party.
47) Entering into arguments or altercation with the workmen in security or watch and ward department while they are discharging their duties and failure to submit for search.
48) Taking up appointment in other establishments while on leave

49) Frequent repetition of any act or omission for which fine may be imposed under a payment on Wages Act, 1936.
50) Any willful conduct or act interfering in the peaceful living of other co-worker.
51) Breach of any Employee Handbook or any law or rules applicable to the establishment.
52) Refusal to work alone or in combination with other, wholly or partially, thereby causing loss of production or affecting discipline and morals.
53) Furnishing false information in respect of details about himself, parents, relative, age, qualification, previous service etc at the time of employment.
54) Habitually poor or unsatisfactory workmanship.
55) Committing or aiding or abetting others to commit any act prejudicial to the interests or reputation of the establishment or the employer.
56) Violation of any of the provisions of statutes, agreements, settlements, awards, Employee Handbook etc.,
57) Misuse of benefits and amenities provided by the establishment or the employer.
58) Unauthorized entry or stay inside the establishment other than during his working hours.
59) Failure to submit to the establishment sickness certificate or the certificate of fitness within the stipulated time from the authorized Medical Officer of the establishment or in case where ESI scheme applies, from the Medical Officer of ESI scheme.
60) Consuming any foodstuff in the work spot or premises of the establishment except in the place set apart from the purpose.
61) Surrounding or blocking or detaining or gheroing any supervisory staff or workmen of the establishment either inside or outside the premises of the establishment or obstructing them to enter the establishment premises.

62) Refusal to do any change of work in the same department or other departments as instructed by the superiors.
63) Quarrelling with or misbehavior towards another workman or superiors within the establishment's premises or outside the establishment's premises if it is connected with employment in the establishment.
64) Resorting to Satyagraha alone or with other, which aims at coercing the management into conceding any request or demand.
65) Conduct on the part of the workmen likely to endanger the safety of the other workmen of the establishment.
66) Failure to maintain the machinery and its immediate surrounding clean.
67) Doing a private or personal work with in the establishment with or without tools or materials belonging to the establishment without the previous permission of the management.
68) Spitting except at the specified places.
69) Acceptance of bribe from subordinate employees / customers.
70) Acceptance or solicitation by an employee (his family or relative) of any money favor or any other means of reward for employment or consideration of employment in the establishment of in connection with the same or purchases made in the establishment.
71) Habitual indebt ness or insolvency.
72) Unauthorized use of any machinery or vehicle of the establishment.
73) Reading newspapers, pamphlets during working hours.
74) Failure to give required normal production.
75) Failure to report at once to his superiors any defect or improper performance which a workman may notice in equipment or machinery.
76) Attempt to remove establishment's property without permission.

77) Keeping the money collected from customers with him without remitting it in to establishment's account.
78) Habitual absence without leave or absence without leave for more than five consecutive days or not reporting for work in five days after the expiry of leave granted.
79) Entering the establishment for work with any badge without the written permission of management.
80) Not following ordinary requirements of decency and cleanliness in person or dress.
81) Failure to show report occurrence of any contagious disease to himself or any other co-worker.
82) Failure to show proper consideration, courtesy or attention towards customers, officers or other employees of the establishment or persons who are either directly or indirectly connected with the affairs of the establishment.
83) Failure or refusal to communicate change of address to the management.
84) Any conduct incompatible to inconsistent with employment in the establishment.
85) Any other act, which results or damage to the property and cause loss of reputation of the establishment.
86) Any other reprehensible act subversive of discipline or amounting to moral turpitude.
87) Any other act of misconduct, which is not specifically provided for but generally affecting general labour morale, industrial discipline etc., detrimental to both labour and management.

88) Misbehaving, insulting, arguing and quarreling or any other behavior with the customers, which will cause damage to the reputation of the Management or Establishment.

89) SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Indulging in Sexual harassment which includes such unwelcome sexually determined behavior (Whether directly or by implication) as :-

a) Physical contact and advances;
b) A demand or request for sexual favors;
c) Sexually coloured remarks;
d) Showing pornography;
e) Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature.

Procedures to deal with cases of Sexual Harassment :

a) Criminal Proceedings

Where the conduct of sexual harassment amounts to a specific offence under the Indian Penal Code or under any other law, the employer shall initiate appropriate action in accordance with law by making a complaint against the culprits with the appropriate authority, ensuring that victims or witnesses are not victimized or discriminated against, while dealing with complaints of sexual harassment. The victims of sexual harassment shall have the option to seek transfer of the perpetrator or their own transfer.

b) Disciplinary action

The conduct of sexual harassment amounts to misconduct in employment as defined by this Employee Handbook, therefore appropriate disciplinary action shall be initiated by the employer, in accordance with this Employee Handbook.

c) Complaint mechanism

Whether or not such action constitutes an offence under law or a breach of the Employee Handbook, a complaint mechanism shall be created in the employer's organization for redresses of the complaint made by the victim. Such complaint mechanism shall ensure time bound treatment of complaints.

d) Complaints committee

- ✓ A complaints committee shall be constituted consisting of five members headed by a woman and not less than half of its members shall be women.
- ✓ It shall include a non-Government organization or other body who is familiar with the issue of sexual harassment.
- ✓ The Complaints Committee should dispose the complaints within 30 days from the date of receipt of the complaints.
- ✓ The Complaints Committee must make an annual report to the Joint Commissioner of Labour Trichy on or before 31st day of January of the succeeding year.

Worker's initiative

Employees are entitled to raise issues of sexual harassment at worker's meeting and in other appropriate forum and it should be affirmatively discussed in Employer – Employee Meetings."

31. WORKPLACE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

- Unfair Treatment
- Wrongful Exactions
- Child Labor
- Forced Labor
- Human Trafficking
- Discrimination and Harassment
- Assault or Abuse
- Refusal of Urgent Leave

1) All complaints arising out of his employment including those relating to unfair treatment or wrongful exaction on the part of the employer or his agent or servant shall be submitted by the workman to the manager or such other officer or officers as the management may appoint. The employer or such other officer authorized by him in this behalf shall personally enquire in to the complaint at such time and place as he or they fix and complainant workman shall have the right to be present.

2) When the complainant alleges unfair treatment or wrongful exactions on the part of the employer or servant a copy of the order finally passed shall be supplied to the complainant if he asks for the same. In other cases, the decision of the enquiring officer shall be communicated to the complainant.

3) The company has established a confidential and accessible mechanism for reporting issues related to child labor, forced labor, and human trafficking. Reports can be made to the designated Compliance Officer. Complaints will be addressed with the highest priority, ensuring thorough investigation and resolution in compliance with relevant laws and regulations. The company will collaborate with relevant authorities and organizations to address and prevent such violations

4) The company provides a confidential mechanism for reporting discrimination and harassment. Complaints can be submitted to the HR Manager. All complaints are handled with confidentiality and sensitivity to ensure a safe and respectful workplace. Investigations will be conducted promptly by trained personnel, and findings, along with actions taken, will be communicated to the complainant as part of the resolution process.

5) Complaints related to assault or abuse by any person holding a managerial or supervisory position shall be inquired into as expeditiously as possible by the Employer or the designated Investigative Officer appointed for such matters.

6) Complaints regarding the refusal of an application for urgent leave shall also be addressed promptly to ensure fair treatment and compliance with company policies.

7) Contact Person:
   - P. Ramesh – Managing Partner: +91 9843031484
   - Email : ramesh@sriallindia.com
   - Anonymous Reporting Hotline: Available by telephone at Tel: +91 4324 237140, Fax: +91 4324 231484.

32. REMEDIATION PROCEDURES

1) The company has established operational procedures to support victims of discrimination and harassment. Upon reporting, victims are provided with access to counseling and legal support within 7 days. Restorative actions, such as reinstating the victim to their rightful position or providing alternative work arrangements, are undertaken within 15 days. Follow-up meetings are conducted every 30 days for a period of 3 months to monitor the well-being of the victim and ensure the workplace environment remains safe and respectful.

2) The company ensures the immediate safety of victims of child labor, forced labor, and human trafficking and removes them from harmful situations within 24 hours of identification. Victims are provided with rehabilitation services, education, and vocational training within 30 days to support their reintegration. The company collaborates closely with local authorities and NGOs, ensuring legal actions are taken against perpetrators within 7 days of reporting.

3) Victims of unfair treatment or wrongful exactions receive compensation for any losses incurred within 10 days of the complaint being substantiated. The company also reviews and adjusts its policies to prevent future occurrences within 30 days. The situation is monitored every 15 days for 6 months to ensure no further unfair treatment occurs.

4) Complaints related to assault or abuse by any person holding a managerial or supervisory position are inquired into confidentially and as expeditiously as possible. Immediate disciplinary action is taken against the perpetrator, and the safety of the victim is ensured within 5 days. The company also provides psychological support and legal assistance to the victim within 7 days.

5) Complaints regarding the refusal of urgent leave are reviewed within 3 days to ensure fair treatment. If the refusal was unjustified, the victim may be compensated for any hardship caused within 7 days. The company may adjust its leave policies within 30 days to prevent future issues.

6) The company maintains detailed records of all remediation efforts, including evidence of the support provided, actions taken, and follow-up procedures. These records are reviewed every 6 months to assess the effectiveness of the remediation process and to ensure continuous improvement.

7) Employees can report any of the above issues or seek support through the following channels:
   - Anonymous Reporting Hotline: Tel: +91 4324 237140, Fax: +91 4324 231484
   - Email: ramesh@sriallindia.com
   - P. Ramesh – Managing Partner: +91 9843031484

33. WHISTLEBLOWER PROCEDURE

a) The Whistleblower Procedure is designed to encourage individuals to report any misconduct, including information security issues, without fear of retaliation. It ensures that concerns are addressed appropriately and confidentially.

b) The company guarantees that all whistleblower reports will be handled with strict confidentiality. The identity of the whistleblower will be protected to the maximum extent possible. Information will be disclosed only to those individuals who need to know for the purpose of conducting a thorough investigation.

c) The company is committed to ensuring that whistleblowers are protected from retaliation. Any individual who reports misconduct in good faith will not face adverse employment actions, such as termination, demotion, or harassment. Retaliation against a whistleblower will be addressed promptly and severely within 5 days.

d) To facilitate the reporting of concerns, the company provides several dedicated channels:
   - Internal Email: whistleblower@sriallindia.com
   - Phone Hotline: Tel: +91 4324 237140
   - Anonymous Reporting Hotline: Available on the company's intranet or via telephone at +91 4324 237140
   - Contact Person: P. Ramesh – Managing Partner, +91 9843031484.

e) The company has established a specific mechanism for reporting information security issues. Reports can be submitted through the dedicated reporting channels. The IT Security Team will address these reports promptly, typically within 7 days, and relevant authorities will be involved as necessary.

f) Stakeholders, including employees, suppliers, and partners, are encouraged to report any incidents of corruption and bribery. Such reports can be made through the same dedicated reporting channels. The company will investigate these reports within 10 days and take appropriate actions to address any issues, including collaborating with law enforcement if necessary.

g) Whistleblowers are encouraged to report concerns related to ethics and compliance, such as conflicts of interest or ethical violations. Reports will be investigated thoroughly within 10 days and addressed as needed.

h) Whistleblowers will receive feedback on the progress and outcome of their reports within 30 days. Follow-up actions will be communicated to ensure that the issue has been resolved satisfactorily.

i) All reports and investigations will be documented meticulously. The company will review the effectiveness of the whistleblower procedure annually, with improvements made as necessary.

34. PUNISHMENT FOR MISCONDUCT

A workman found guilty of misconduct may be punished with the following.

1) Warning or censure orally or in writing.
2) Break in service.

In the event of any workman remaining absent without leave on any day and who had not actually worked 240 days of actual work in any period of 12 months. (accounted from the date of joining) as break in service for the said 12 months it shall be deemed that he is not to be in continuous service for the said 12 months only for the purpose of calculation of gratuity and consequently he shall not be entitled to gratuity for the said 12 months.

3) Fine as per provisions of the payment wages Act 1936.
4) Reduction in rank. (Demotion)
5) The management may withhold the increment due to the workmen, if he is on incremented scale or demote him to a lower post including the post other than the original post with or without the consequential change of emoluments.
6) Suspension without wages for a period not exceeding thirty working days.
7) Dismissal or Discharge from the service without notice or compensation what so ever.
8) To discharge by giving a month notice or payment of a month's wages in lieu of notice.
9) To grant any other punishment which the management deems just and necessary.
10) Except for the punishment warning or censure orally or on writing and break in service (clause 1&2) no enquiry or issue of charge memo etc required to be followed.

35. PROCEDURE FOR PUNISHMENT

1) Where a disciplinary proceeding against the workman is contemplated on pending or where criminal proceedings against him in respect of any offences are in progress and the employer is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable to place the workman under suspension, he may, by an order in writing suspend him with effect from such date as may be specified in the order. A notice setting out detail the reason for such suspension shall be communicated to the workman with in a week from the date of suspension.

2) The workman who is placed under suspension pending enquiry shall be paid subsistence allowance on accordance with the provisions of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Subsistence Allowance Act, 1981.

3) In case of admission of misconduct, no enquiry is necessary.

4) In case the management decides to conduct an enquiry, the concerned workman shall be intimated the charges against him and it is open to him to submit any explanation in respect of the charges framed. In case the management decides to conduct an enquiry it can appoint an enquiry officer for the purpose of conducting the enquiry either from one among the officials or an outsider whether they are qualified or not.

5) In the enquiry the concerned workman shall be provided an opportunity to defend himself and may be permitted to have one co-workman as an observer on his side. The workman shall not be represented or can have his observer any outsider who is not workman whether he is an office bearer of trade union or not or by an advocate.

   a) In the enquiry the workman shall be permitted to cross examine the management witnesses and permitted to examine witness on his side. In case of absenting himself or his witness form being appeared before the enquiry officer to set him ex-parte and complete the enquiry in his or their absence.
   b) If on the conclusion of the enquiry or of criminal proceedings as the case may be, the workman was found guilty of the charges framed against him and if an order of dismissal, discharge, break in service, suspension, demotion, stoppage of increment, fine, censure or warning would meet the ends of justice, the management shall pass an order accordingly. He shall also not to be entitled to any allowance or compensation or wages in case he was under suspension pending enquiry other that the subsistence allowance payable under the provision of the Tamil Nadu Payment of Subsistence Allowance Act 1981.

c) Provide that when an order of dismissal is passed under this clause the workman shall be deemed to have been dismissed with effect on and from the date of absence from duty during the period of suspension pending enquiry and shall not be entitled to wages for such period. Provided that when an order of suspension is passed as punishment under this clause, the period of suspension by way of punishment will be independent of the period of suspension pending enquiry. Provided further that when an order imposing fine or stoppage of increment or demotion or break in service or discharge or dismissal is passed under this clause, the workman shall be entitled to subsistence allowance for the period of suspension pending enquiry as per clause (b)

If on the conclusion of the enquiry or of criminal proceedings as the case may be, the workman is held to be not guilty of the charges, then he shall be entitled to full Wages for the period of suspension pending enquiry as if he is not placed under suspension pending enquiry after deduction the subsistence allowance paid to him for the said period.

During the period of suspension pending enquiry, the workman has no right to enter into the establishment except with prior permission and he shall not leave the head quarter. In awarding the punishment, the management shall take in account the gravity of the misconduct.

If necessary, the management may also take into account the previous record of the workman or may other extenuating or aggravating circumstances that may exist.

The order of punishment order that break in service shall be in writing. Notices, orders, memos due to have been served on the concerned person by serving in person or by sending by registered post to the last known address. Display of notice memo or orders on the Notice Board of the management shall also be considered as sufficient notice or memo or orders being communicated to the person concerned.

The payment of subsistence allowance shall be subject to the workman concerned not taking any employment during the period of suspension pending enquiry and also the workman concerned not receiving any cash benefit under may other law for the time being in force.

The conducting of domestic enquiry will always take place only after the shift hours and not during the shift working of the charge sheeted workman, his witness, his observer etc., If any one of these workman wishes to participate in the domestic enquiry during his shift working, he shall be allowed to do so provided he, his witness and his observer will not be paid wages or any allowances for the said period.

36. SPECIAL PROCEDURES IN CERTAIN CASES

Notwithstanding anything contained in the aforesaid clauses of Employee Handbook, if the management of the establishment is satisfied for reasons to be recorded in writing, that it is not expedient or in the interest of the security or not possible in the opinion of the Managing Partner to follow the procedures for punishment as laid down under other clause of this Employee Handbook, he may consider the circumstances of the case and pass such orders thereon as he deems fit without any notice.

37. IMPOSITION OF FINES

1) Workmen may be fined for any of under quoted offences but the offence if repeated may be treated as misconduct under order No.26 Fines up to 2% of his wage in a month will be imposed in accordance with the provisions of the Payment of Wages Act.

2) No fine shall be imposed except by the officers authorized under the payment of wages rules and until the workmen concerned has been given an opportunity of being heard. Repetition of the above offence more than thrice will be treated as major misconduct and the workman concerned shall be liable for legal action.

38. PAYMENT OF WAGES

1) A workman shall check his salary / wages immediately following receipt. No claim for shortage will be entertained once the recipient has left the immediate presence of the person making payment.

2) Any wages due to the workman but not paid on the usual pay day on account of that being unclaimed shall if a claim is presented by the workman or by his legal representative within three years from the date of which the wages become due to the workman, be paid to the workman or his legal representative as the case may be, on such unclaimed wages pay day, as may be notified in this behalf.
3) The company is committed to monitoring and auditing remuneration practices to identify and address unequal pay. This includes conducting regular analyses of factors contributing to the pay gap and implementing measures to eliminate any disparities. The company will undertake annual review of compensation structures to ensure fairness and equity across all levels and roles, ensuring that all workmen are compensated fairly according to their skills, experience, and performance

39. ACCOMODATION

Whenever quarters are provided to workman they must vacate the same within 30 days from the date of order of eviction by the management.

If, in the opinion of the management, any workman is unable to discharge his normal duties at the date of order of eviction by the management.

40. Data Security and Management Procedures

The company ensures robust data protection through strict internal controls. Customer data is safeguarded with physical access restrictions, digital authentication measures, and encryption protocols. Access to customer data is granted based on job roles, and regular audits are conducted to maintain compliance. Data is retained according to a defined schedule and securely deleted or anonymized when no longer needed. In case of a data breach, affected customers are promptly notified and provided with support.

| Type of Data | Retention Period | Retention Criteria |
|---|---|---|
| Customer Contact Information | 7 years | Retained for ongoing customer relationship and support |
| Payment Information | 5 years | Retained for audit purposes and to comply with financial regulations |
| Order History | 10 years | Retained for future orders, reference, and customer support |
| Communication Records (Emails, Calls) | 3 years | Retained for dispute resolution and customer service quality checks |
| Sensitive Personal Data | Until consent is withdrawn or 5 years | Retained with explicit consent, until the customer requests deletion or the retention period ends |
| Third-Party Data Sharing Logs | 5 years | Retained for transparency and accountability purposes |

41. NOTICE

a) Any matter required to be notified under these Employee Handbook and notice by the employer to the workman in the establishment shall be displayed on notice boards maintained for the purpose at conspicuous place in the premises of the establishment.

b) Any notice or communication intended for any workman may be delivered to him personally in the premises of the establishment or sent to him by post to the address of the workman as recorded on the service records. If for any reason the notice is not served on the workman concerned, displaying a copy of the same in the main gate is sufficient compliance of communication.

c) Any matter required to be notified under these Employee Handbook and any notice or communication by the management to the workmen in establishment shall be in Tamil provided that if the majority of the workmen in the establishment know English any other regional language and express a desire to receive communication may be sent to the workmen in that language.

Approved By : General Manager

Approved Date: 02-01-2024

Next Review Date: 01-01-2026