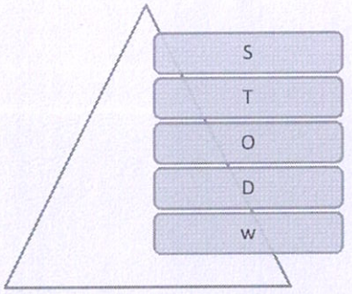
JOB, BAND AND GRADE CLASSIFICATION

Ami Organics uses a structured grade matrix to help align roles with experience, qualifications, and responsibilities. Employees are placed in one of five broad bands—Strategy (S), Tactical (T), Operational (O), Delivery (D), or Workers (W)—each with corresponding grades.



This framework serves as a general guide and helps determine applicable benefits, terms, and growth opportunities. While qualifications and experience are key factors, other aspects like performance and organizational needs also play a role.

The grade matrix is for internal reference and may evolve over time to reflect company and market developments.

- No discrimination—career plans are purely performance-based and aligned with skills & potential.

📚 Training & Development for Career Advancement

Encouraging Career Growth Through Internal Mobility

At Ami Organics, internal mobility plays a crucial role in career progression, and we ensure that all promotions are conducted fairly and without discrimination. Our strategy includes:

- Vertical Mobility (Promotions & Career Advancement): We provide clear, merit-based promotion pathways. Promotions are based on performance, skills, and achievements, ensuring equal opportunities for all employees, regardless of gender, age, race, or background.

- Horizontal Mobility (Role/Department Shifts): We support employees moving between departments or functions at the same job level, fostering skill diversification and career satisfaction.

- Non-Discriminatory Promotion Policies: Promotion decisions are transparent and based on objective criteria like job performance, qualifications, and contributions, with no bias or favoritism. We aim to create an inclusive promotion process that encourages diversity at all organizational levels.

- Internal Job Posting System: Employees are encouraged to apply for roles across departments. All open positions are posted internally first to ensure equal access to career opportunities for everyone within the organization.

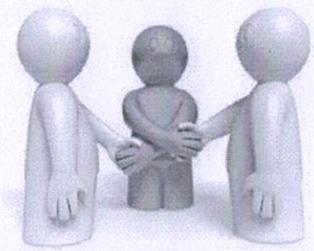
BUDDY PROGRAM

To support new hires, we run a structured 90-day Buddy Program.

Buddies are selected and trained to help new team members feel welcomed and supported.

They assist with settling in, offer guidance, and gather feedback during key check-ins.

The program helps build comfort, confidence, and a sense of belonging. Effective buddies are recognized for their contribution.



EMPLOYEE REFERRAL

Employees are welcome to refer individuals for open roles.

If a referred candidate is hired and completes 6 months, the referring employee receives a bonus, based on the grade of the hire.

Some employees—like managers, HR, or those referring family members—are not eligible for the reward.

The process involves submitting a referral form before hiring begins, and all referrals go through the same fair recruitment steps.

PROBATION

New employees typically undergo a 6-month probation period to assess performance and role fit.

Feedback and evaluations are conducted before confirmation. If needed, probation can be extended twice (up to 3 months each).

During this time, a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) may be introduced. All outcomes—confirmation, extension, or separation—are communicated formally, with supporting documentation maintained.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS AND BEHAVIOUR

We expect all employees to maintain professionalism in how they dress, communicate, and conduct themselves.

This includes wearing uniforms and ID cards, being punctual, using company resources responsibly, and respecting workplace ethics.

Social media use, photography, and personal behavior must align with company values.

The workplace is strictly alcohol- and substance-free, and confidentiality is a shared responsibility.

LEAVES

Our leave policy supports employee well-being with provisions for public holidays, casual leave (7 days), sick leave (7 days), privilege leave (18 days), maternity leave (as per law), and compensatory off for extra work.

Leave must be approved in advance through HRIS.

Unused casual leave is converted to privilege leave; sick leave lapses yearly.

Privilege leave can be encashed or carried forward up to 30 days.

Special rules apply to probationary employees, and misuse may result in loss of pay.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

We offer a variety of employee-friendly benefits, including a marriage gift, annual health check-ups, free meals, and insurance coverage (Mediclaim and accident).

Academic achievements of employees' children are rewarded.

These benefits are periodically reviewed and may be updated to reflect organizational needs. While they reflect our care for employee well-being, they are not entitlements and remain at management's discretion.

FLEXI HOUR POLICY

Employees may adjust their shift start and end times by up to 1 hour to accommodate personal or commuting needs.

Flexi-hour arrangements must not disrupt production schedules or team coordination.

Employees must inform their reporting manager at least one day in advance if availing of flexible hours.

Late arrivals or early departures beyond the permissible flexi-hour must be pre-approved and comply with the attendance policy.

WORK FROM HOME

WFH may be availed by employees for specific tasks that do not require physical presence at the workplace.

Prior approval (at least 24 hours) from the reporting manager is mandatory for each WFH request.

Employees must remain accessible during working hours via email, calls, or virtual platforms.

Productivity expectations and deliverables must be clearly communicated and met during WFH days.

Data security and confidentiality must be strictly maintained while working remotely.

EMPLOYEE AUTONOMY AND DOCUMENT SECURITY

No Retention Policy: Employees are never required to submit or relinquish original personal identification documents (e.g., Aadhaar, PAN, Passport) as a condition of employment or HR processing.

Clear Communication If Originals Are Requested: In the rare case where submission of original documents is necessary (e.g., statutory verification or compliance checks), employees receive written communication clearly stating:

- Purpose of submission
- Expected duration of holding
- Exact documents required

Strong Control Measures for Document Protection: If original documents are submitted temporarily, Ami Organics ensures:

- Secure storage in locked, access-controlled cabinets
- Access limited strictly to authorized HR personnel
- Immediate return after completion of the specific purpose
- Tracking and acknowledgment records for transparency

Secure Optional Storage: For personal needs, employees are provided secure lockers at the workplace to voluntarily store their documents, fully controlled by the employee.

Employee Rights and Awareness: During onboarding and training sessions, employees are educated about their rights to retain control over their personal identification documents.

LOAN AND ADVANCE

Employees with at least 24 months of service may request a loan of up to 2.5 times their gross salary, subject to available funds and approval.

Loans can be availed for personal or family-related needs such as education, housing, or medical emergencies.

Repayment is over a maximum of 6 months, deducted from salary.

Advances of up to 70% of monthly salary can be requested (maximum four times a year) in urgent cases.

FURTHER STUDIES

We encourage employees to pursue education relevant to their role.

With prior approval, benefits like paid exam leave (once per course) and flexible work hours may be granted.

Employees must ensure studies don't affect work, and commit to staying with the company for a set time post-completion—1 year for certifications, 2 years for master's, and 5 years for doctorates.

Reimbursement of fees may be considered in select cases.

SEPARATION

When an employee leaves the company—whether by resignation, retirement, termination, or other reasons—Ami Organics follows a clear and respectful process.

Resigning employees are expected to serve their notice period and complete a formal exit through HRIS, including an exit interview and no-dues clearance.

Final settlement includes pending salary, leave encashment, gratuity (if eligible), and other dues.

Terminations follow due process, and in case of death or retirement, the company ensures support and timely processing of dues.

FAREWELL

We value long-term contributions.

Employees leaving after 3+ years of service (except in cases of misconduct) are given a farewell celebration and a gift, based on their job band and years of service.

Gifts are in the form of items or vouchers (not cash) and may be accompanied by a small memento and sweet box.

Farewells are arranged in the presence of team leads or senior managers whenever possible.

TRANSFER

To support business needs and employee growth, transfers may be initiated across locations, departments, or roles.

Transferred employees (unless moved on their own request) are eligible for travel reimbursement for themselves and their family, packing expenses, and two days of special leave.

Transfers help with job rotation, skill development, and organizational alignment.

TRAVEL

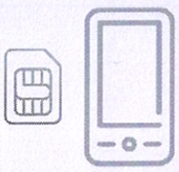
When employees travel for official work, expenses related to travel, accommodation, meals, and local transport are reimbursed as per eligibility.

Prior approval is needed through the Tour Planning Form.

Cost-efficiency, timely reporting, and proper documentation (like bills and tour reports) are essential.

Travel during weekends or late hours may lead to compensatory off, and international travel has specific entitlements based on the region and employee level.

TELECOMMUNICATION



Company-provided phones and SIM cards are issued for official use only and must be handled responsibly.

Personal use is not allowed on these devices.

International roaming is provided when required.

No mobile phones (except approved models) are allowed in manufacturing/restricted areas.

Landline access is available across departments.

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL

We encourage employees to voice any work-related concerns—about roles, leaves, policies, safety, working condition, child labor / Forced labor & human trafficking, discrimination, harassment, un-equality etc.—without fear.

Start by speaking with your immediate manager.

If unresolved, raise it through HRIS. HR will review it within 5 days, and if needed, escalate it to the Grievance Committees.

Employees can reopen grievances once if dissatisfied.

Every effort is made to resolve issues fairly and promptly.

PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT (POSH)

Ami Organics is committed to a safe and respectful workplace for all.

Any employee, intern, visitor, or vendor can report sexual harassment to the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC).

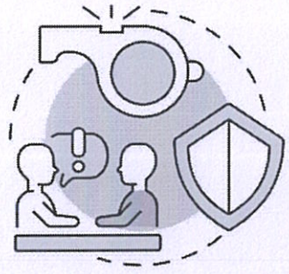
Complaints are handled confidentially, fairly, and in line with legal guidelines.

False complaints are discouraged, but support is always provided to genuine concerns.

Awareness sessions and clear reporting channels are part of our proactive approach.

VIGIL MECHANISM AND WHISTLEBLOWER

Employees are encouraged to report unethical behavior, Corruption, Information security breach, fraud, or code of conduct violations without fear.



Complaints can be addressed to the Vigilance Officer or Audit Committee Chair, based on the nature of concern.

All disclosures are handled confidentially, and whistleblowers are protected from retaliation.

Investigations are conducted fairly, and misuse of this policy may lead to action if found malicious.

REMEDIATION ACTIONS FOR AFFECTED VICTIMS

At Ami Organics, we are committed to promptly addressing any incident involving unethical, unsafe, or unfair treatment in the workplace—whether related to child labor, forced labor, human trafficking, discrimination, harassment, or any other violation of rights and dignity. Once an incident is identified, we take immediate and comprehensive steps to support the affected individual and prevent recurrence as below:

- Confidential counseling and medical support are offered to address trauma or physical harm.
- A detailed, unbiased internal investigation is launched, respecting the privacy and dignity of the victim.
- The victim is provided with legal guidance and the option to escalate the issue through formal channels.

We welcome suggestions that improve efficiency, safety, or processes.

Employees can submit ideas individually or in groups through a Kaizen Idea Card.

Approved ideas may receive monetary rewards or certificates, depending on their impact.

All ideas are reviewed by the Kaizen Committee.

Ami Organics supports employee mobility by offering a vehicle benefit scheme for confirmed employees who have completed 12 months of service.

Eligible employees can receive 60% reimbursement of a vehicle's cost (as per their grade entitlement) over four years.

The policy also promotes electric vehicle (EV) use through higher reimbursement limits.

Vehicles must be purchased in the employee's name and cannot be resold within 4 years.

Employees are responsible for insurance, repairs, and other costs. If an employee separates within 3 years of availing this benefit, a partial or full recovery of the reimbursed amount applies.
